PRAISE

Simply put, praise is the adoration of God. It is demonstrated in the open by activities that are assertive in expression. Praise can be verbal like singing or making declarations or nonverbal like lifting up of hands, kneeling or dancing. By whatever means we must praise the Lord because praise opens doors and gives us access to the very courts of God!

Psalm 8:2 (TPT) ²You have built a stronghold by the songs of babies. Strength rises up with the chorus of singing children. This kind of praise has the power to shut Satan's mouth. Childlike worship will silence the madness of those who oppose you.

Psalm 100:4–5 (AMP) ⁴Enter into His gates with thanksgiving and a thank offering and into His courts with praise! Be thankful and say so to Him, bless and affectionately praise His name! ⁵For the Lord is good; His mercy and loving-kindness are everlasting, His faithfulness and truth endure to all generations.

Psalm 119:164 (NKJV) ¹⁶⁴Seven times a day I praise You, Because of Your righteous judgments.

Psalm 150:6 (NKJV) ⁶Let everything that has breath praise the Lord. Praise the Lord!

Praise impacts (1) How we relate to God; intimacy with Him (2) Our mental and emotional well being (3) Spiritual growth and experiences (4) Dealing with the devil and his cohorts and much more.

God wants us. He wants us to praise him all the time. In praise we give ourselves to God. We can do things for the Lord, but we can do nothing for Him until we have first given ourselves unto Him. But God wants us. He longs for us to love Him. He isn't looking for your service or money or gifts. He wants your heart. He wants you. This is the most important aspect of praise. As we give of ourselves we move into the heavenly realm, and everything else will fall into place

When we praise God, we have every area covered—we are ministering directly unto God and pleasing Him, we are building ourselves up, we are tormenting the devil, and we are immunizing ourselves against all of the things Satan is bringing against us. That is exciting!

Psalm 22:3 (NKJV) ³But You are holy, Enthroned in the praises of Israel.

Isaiah 26:3 (AMP) ³You will guard him and keep him in perfect and constant peace whose mind [both its inclination and its character] is stayed on You, because he commits himself to You, leans on You, and hopes confidently in You.

Psalms 8:2 (NKJV) ²Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants You have ordained strength, Because of Your enemies, That You may silence the enemy and the avenger.

Matthew 21:16 (NKJV) ¹⁶and said to Him, “Do You hear what these are saying?” And Jesus said to them, “Yes. Have you never read, ‘Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants You have perfected praise’?”

Praise makes God the priority in our situations and circumstances. Praise permits Him access to exercise rule and dominion. Our praise is perfected by God and ordains strength to overcome. His eternal greatness permeates us as we engage Him who is “worthy of eternal praise.” (Romans 1.25b) May the truth of praise be heard and heeded to an may we indeed enter into te blessing and freedoms therein.

Amen!

PRAISE

Matthew 21:9 [NLT]

Jesus was in the center of the procession, and the people all around him were shouting, "Praise God for the Son of David! Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Praise God in highest heaven!"

Meditation: Picture it. All the people are shouting and singing and dancing. Waving the palm branches and hailing the Lord. Imagine the high praise! And Jesus was right in the center of it. He was right there! The Lord inhabits praise (Ps 22:3). What has God done for you? Can you thank Him with praise? When you praise God, guess where He is? Right there. Right in the center of your praise. So go ahead. Praise Him!

Prayer Directives & Strategies

1. Sing Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Go ahead. Dance too!
2. Command your senses to see the goodness of God.
3. Testify!!! Recant His goodness! Say what He has done for you.
4. As you praise, call Jesus in. Invite the Father & Holy Spirit.
5. Ask the Godhead to lead you and guide you in right path.
6. Speak to the heavens, earth, seas and skies. Tell each sector to praise the name of the Lord!

PRAISE
James 3:10 [NIV]

*Out of the same mouth comes praise and cursing.
My brothers and sisters, this should not be.*

Meditation: What comes out of your mouth reveals what's inside of you and who you are. In Psalms 34:1 the psalmist says he will praise the Lord at all times. Your mouth is supposed to be full of praise and blessings all the time, not cursing. This should not be because the river flowing out of you cannot have good and evil. The tiniest bit of evil makes it all evil. So let praise come out of your mouth! Just praise.

Prayer Directives & Strategies

1. Let the sound of praise arise from within you.
2. Separate your mouth and heart from evil speech.
3. Ask God to fill you completely with Himself.
4. Commit your speech unto the Lord.
5. Declare: my utterances will testify and witness to others.

Romans 12:1-2 [NKJV]

1 I beseech [a] you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your [b] reasonable service. 2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

Meditation: Praise is not just raising your hands, singing or verbal admiration. Praise is giving God everything. Your all! Praise is the way you think, your obediences, sacrifices, responses, and even your attitude. Everything about you should say, “Lord thank you for what you’ve done for me!” Live for Him. Praise God in everything.

Prayer Directives & Strategies

2. Tell Him you belong to Him.
3. Declare: I have a renewed mind.
4. Denounce worldly thinking and behaviors.
5. Declare that the will of God is perfect.
6. Ask God to help you align your thoughts with His perfect will.

Meditation: When the storms of life bind you and you don't know what to do learn a thing or two from Paul and Silas: praise brings you victory. Set your eyes on God. In spite of all that Paul and Silas went through, they did not complain. Instead they sang loud praises to God. The prison walls began to shake and everyone's chains were broken.
